Add Follies of 1951: Picture of a man mowing his yard like mad to beat the rain—and then it doesn't rain.

The dogs got me up early yesterday morning. There was a man on the garage roof. But he had business there. He was stringing new wire for the telephone, and informed me a dial set would be in the house that day. And so it was when I returned last night—with a nice little note to the effect, "You'll still call the operator—this thing isn't ready yet." It will be by October, they say.

This is an anniversary in the Arkansas newspaper business. Nine years ago, June 19, 1942, the Southwest Arkansas Teletypesetter Circuit was opened as the pioneer of a newspaper wire system that has now spread all over America. Instead of telegraphing words, the Teletypesetter circuit reproduces perforated ticker tape which runs typesetting machines automatically. It makes available to country newspapers 36,000 words of today's news today. The speed is incredible—75 words a minute, 8 hours a day.

The 1942 circuit, with Associated Press copy punched into tape at Hot Springs, served four papers, Hope Star, Magnolia Banner News, El Dorado News-Times, and Camden News. Now it serves eight, the other four being, Texarkana Gazette-News, DeQueen Citizen, Stuttgart Leader & Arkansawyer, and Helena World. The fame of this gamble back in 1942 spread all over the world, and we got letters from Australia and Canada asking for details. They don't write and more—now they're using Teletypesetters themselves.

Collier's Magazine for June 23 has a remarkable article about India's Prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, written by David E. Lilienthal, former head of the Tennessee Valley Authority. It is a reassuring piece that every American should read.

Nehru, Lilienthal reports, is a man who remembers the past conquests of both India and China by foreign invaders. Therefore he seems in current diplomacy to lean more toward China than to the Western democracies. But we shouldn't be confused, the interview continues. Nehru is a bitter foe of Communism in his own country. And while he lives India will never accept dictation from Reds, whether in China or Russia.

Lilienthal personally inspected India's rising industry and new governmental machine, and came away convinced that any man as independent as Nehru is deserves America's trust and co-operation—after we understand the ancient suspicion that causes India to sympathize with China, as distinguished from the Chinese Reds.

The article points out that India's friendship is important, because if we lose it we lose our last foothold on the Asian continent. Since the writing of the article, of course, our government has extended important aid to Nehru, sending rain to his famine ridden country.

First reports from the Treasury disclose that the great majority of Americans with maturing E Bonds are leaving them on deposit at 2 1/2 per cent.

The score up to yesterday showed that of 110 million dollars in maturing bonds only 1 1/2 millions were cashed. This was for the month of May, but the Treasury said the same ratio is being maintained this month.

Which shows you that the little investors have as much sense as the big ones. Many a business man has free-market coupon bonds which are now quoted at $97 against $100 par. But you don't see anyone selling 'em. They, too, bring 2 1/2 per cent interest—the holders are caught below par because the government is trying to discourage folks from selling off 2 1/2 per cent in order to grab 3 and 4 per cent in private securities. And it works, too. Who's going to sacrifice a 3 per cent principal loss in government securities to get a higher interest return elsewhere?

Municipal Judge Race Not Up This Election

The attorney general of Arkansas has ruled that Municipal Judge W. K. Lemley was elected for a four year term in 1948 and that his term of office does not expire until 1952. Harvey Barr, Democratic Central Committee Chairman announced today.

The committee was in doubt as to whether the office was up and called for the ruling.

Other city races appear to have settled down somewhat after a first-week flurry of announcements. As it stands the following have announced:

Mayor: C. A. Armitage and Joe Jones.

Alderman Ward 1: W. C. Gentry and C. W. Tarpley.

Alderman Ward 2: Webb Lasater and W. H. H. C. Murphy.

Alderman Ward 3: H. C. Murphy.

READY FOR MARKET — As cattle receipts at Kansas City's stockyards doubled over last Monday's 4948 head received, cattle growers and retailers warned that Government price controls will curtail beef production. Total shipments of 65,000 head today to nation's 12 major livestock markets, included 8,000 here, showed a 28,000-head improvement over last week's total of 38,000 just around half received a year ago. Meyer's Bakery Now in New Building; Two Hope Men Buy Baking Plant at Malvern

Two Hope men long connected with local bakeries recently purchased a baking plant at Malvern. They are Chester W. Hunt, local manager for Meyer's Baking Co., and Jess W. Gilliam, also a Meyer's employee. The men severed their relations with the Meyer's Bakery this weekend and are now operating their Malvern plant. Meanwhile, M. D. Todd, vice-president and general manager of Meyer's Baking Co. announced today that the local plant is now in the new building on Highway 7, east, near Hope City limits. Mr. Todd said a formal opening of the new plant will be held in the new future at which time visitors from an 11-county area will be on hand for ceremonies.

Robbery Attempt Probed; No Trace of 3 Negroes

State Policeman Milton Mosier said today that three negroes definitely tried to halt Mrs. J. C. Whitehead in the Bodcaw bottoms yesterday morning but an investigation revealed no trace of them. Mrs. Whitehead was carrying a package for the W. D. Whitehead Store. She said three negroes spread out across the road and tried to flag her down. The alarm of woman slowed down, honked the auto horn but they stayed in the road. She tried to dodge them but hit one, although she didn't believe he was seriously injured. Mr. Mosier's investigation showed where the negroes had parked their car but no trace of them could be found.

Masons to Name New Officers

Growers Can Get Aid in Buying Farm

"Buying a farm is one of the most important decisions a farm family ever makes, and since paying for a farm is often a lifetime proposition, it is well for a family to consider all factors that will affect the farm's value in the future as well as the present," said W. M. Sparks, county supervisor, Farmers Home Administration.

For example, said Mr. Sparks, the family wants to be sure the farm they purchase will produce an adequate living, pay taxes, insurance and upkeep costs, enable them to accumulate savings for rainy days that are sure to come, and pay off the purchase price within a reasonable length of time. Dr. Jose Diaz Padron, chief of the police crime laboratory, said "the scientific facts now available all indicate" that the "marine sergeant shot the watchman, then killed himself."

But, he added, "of motives, we know nothing." Others familiar with the case pointed out that Sheldon had been found lying on a narrow couch with his pistol beside him. They theorized that, if he had shot himself, the kick of the gun would have hurled it to the floor, or... Diaz Padron said he based his theory on "lack of any evidence, or physical evidence at the scene," and on a paraffin test showing "that the sergeant recently had fired the gun."

Under the farm ownership plan of the Farm Home Administration, loans are made to tenants and sharecroppers to buy farms, and to farm owners to develop or improve farms now owned or to repair existing houses or build new ones. However, loans are not made to buy farms at inflated prices. Farms are bought only on the basis of long-term normal earning capacity values so they will pay out even in a period of low prices.

The normal earning capacity value is determined by a qualified appraiser, the FHA supervisor, and FHA county committee. These men go over each layout and study the buildings, water supply, and such hazards as insects and floods. They secure the correct figures on crop yield per acre and consider nearness of roads, churches and schools. These and other precautionary measures help assure them that the owner of today will not be the tenant of tomorrow.

Applications and further information may be secured through the local Farmers Home Administration office in the courthouse.

PSC to Hear MOP Proposal

Little Rock, June 19 — (AP) — The Arkansas public service commission yesterday took under advisement application of the Missouri Pacific transportation company for authority to discontinue a number of its round trip schedule in Arkansas.

The action followed a day of long hearing.

Unemployment Reaches New Low

Washington, June 19 — (AP) — Unemployment last month reached a new postwar low for May, the government reported yesterday.

The bureau of labor statistics said that despite cutbacks in the auto and other durable goods in an all-time high for the season.

Employment of farm was given as 46,100,000.

Los Angeles, June 19 — (AP) — The mounting cost of living has hit the juke box.

It costs a dime now to get the bow tie to warble one of the new ones.

Portland, San Diego and Fresno have gone to the higher price, too, and John Hawley of the National Association of Music Box Operators says most of the nation's cities will hike the price within 30 days.

Hawley says that records used to cost about 19 cents each, against 91 cents now. Juke boxes used to cost $150 to $200. Compared with $1,000 to $1,200. Needles used to cost seven cents. Now they're 25 cents.

Cubans Find No Motives in Death of Two

Havana, June 19 — Cuban authorities today ordered an autopsy which they hope will shed some light on the strange case of a U. S. marine sergeant and a Cuban watchman found dead in the American embassy yesterday.

Sgt. Robert J. Sheldon, 22, of Parishville, N. Y., an embassy guard, and the watchman, Augustin Fernandez, 7, were found in the embassy's visa section early yesterday. Each had been shot once in the head.

Dr. Jose Diaz Padron, chief of the police crime laboratory, said "the scientific facts now available all indicate" that the "marine sergeant shot the watchman, then killed himself."

But, he added, "of motives, we know nothing." Others familiar with the case pointed out that Sheldon had been found lying on a narrow couch with his pistol beside him. They theorized that, if he had shot himself, the kick of the gun would have hurled it to the floor, or... Diaz Padron said he based his theory on "lack of any evidence, or physical evidence at the scene," and on a paraffin test showing "that the sergeant recently had fired the gun."

The police official added that Sheldon's pistol — a 45 calibre automatic — had been fired twice, and that it was the only weapon found in the embassy, and that two cartridge shells found near the bodies were fired from the gun.

He is studying the slugs which killed the two men to determine whether they were fired from Sheldon's pistol.

Fingerprints on Sheldon's gun are being studied to see if any other than his own appear.

The U. S. embassy report on the incident did not disclose how, or why the two men were shot, or whether there were no indications of any attempted robbery.

Friends of Sheldon, who played cards with him before he came on guard duty just after midnight Sunday, said he appeared normal.

The U. S. navy is sending Lieut. C. G. Bratenahl here from its Key West, Fla., naval base to attend today's autopsy.

Sheldon was a native of Nopkinton, N. Y. His mother, Mrs. Ruby Elizabeth Sheldon, lives in Parishville, N. Y. A sister, Mrs. Homer Kingsley, lives at Massena, N. Y. Sheldon served with the marines in China for two years.

No Clues in Store Robbery

Pine Bluff, June 18 — (AP) — No new clues have been discovered to the identity of the two armed bandits in false faces who robbed the Safeway store here of approximately $2,000 Saturday night. The store was crowded with late shoppers who remained unaware of the robbery in process at the rear of the store.

The theft accomplished by two men, obviously white, according to witnesses, occurred almost three quarters of an hour before the 9 p. m. closing time. They entered a back door which was momentarily left unlatched by an employee.

"We never stopped operating" store manager Massanelli said today.

He said the bandits were apparently familiar with the layout of the supermarket, and that the robbery was accomplished in less than five minutes.

A large amount of money in checks was ignored by the robbers, he said.

Police are investigating a lead given by a customer of the store who said he saw a green car parked in the rear of the store at the time of the robbery.

Group Votes to Halt Another Rollback Round

Washington, June 19 — (AP) — The house banking committee has put a hand on Price Director Michael V. DiSalle's most price cleaver, tentatively voting to prohibit the two additional beef price cuts DiSalle plans.

The committee acted last night after strong administration support and a renewed flow of cattle to the slaughter pens had apparently made the ex-mayor of Toledo victor in his toughest price fight. Cattle raisers and meat packers have fought the order.

DiSalle has declared the success of the whole effort to control prices and wages may hinge on his efforts to chop live beef prices 19 per cent, a first-stage ten per cent cut is in effect. DiSalle scheduled further reductions, each 4-12 per cent, on Aug. 1 and Oct. 1. The senate banking committee yesterday defeated, seven to five, a proposal similar to the one the house group approved, to bar further beef price roll backs.

Meanwhile, as both house and senate banking committees were urged by the administration to get out a stiff new controls law, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) called for a five-month extension of present economic controls. He also proposed a delay until Dec. 1 of any decision on enacting new taxes.

His move today was seen in some quarters as a Republican reply to a tactic used by Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson yesterday for a compromise to action by the lawmakers before the present law expires June 30.

With proponents of an "as-is" status apparently in the majority, the senate banking committee may vote today on a proposal by Senator Capehart (Ind.) to continue the present controls act, as Taft proposed, Ill. Dec. 1. Sen. S. Parkman (D-Min.) suggested an extension to March 31, instead.

The house banking committee's 1211 vote against further cuts in the price of beef on the hot was on an amendment to the new defense production act the committee is considering. This is the statute giving the government most of its powers to regulate prices, wages, production and credit. President Truman has asked a two-year extension and more stringent control powers in the new law.

Purchasing Act Petitions Challenged

Little Rock, June 19 (AP) — Sufficiency of petitions to refer the new state purchasing act has been challenged.

If upheld, this will give sponsors of the move additional time to obtain more signatures.

Osborne W. Garvin, Little Rock attorney, wrote the Secretary of State C. G. Hall that 271 of the 12,293 signatures to petitions to refer the measure to a vote at the 1952 general election were illegal. That would mean not enough legal signatures are on the petitions for referral.

If Hall agrees, sponsors of the petitions will have another 30 days to get additional signatures. If he disagrees, Garvin apparently could seek a court order holding that the petitions were insufficient.

The law involved is act 242 of 1951, sponsored by the administration of Governor McMath, to "liberalize" and make uniform state purchasing practices.

Opponents of the new act, led by John F. Wells of Little Rock, circulated petitions to bring it a popular vote. Meanwhile, it remains ineffective.

Alleged tampering with the record of the vote on the act in the house of representatives led to investigations by a house committee and the Pulaski county grand jury.

Operation Gives Youth With Broken Neck Some Relief

Garwin Bobo, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bobo of Spring Hill who suffered a fractured neck while diving in a lake near his home Sunday, was reported still in serious condition at Branch General Hospital here.

The young boy consciousness yesterday after an operation relieved the situation and he has been conscious since. Mrs. Bobo said Ray said: "The doctors described my injury as a very serious one. The operation was very successful and I feel much better now."

'Rock Thrower' Gets $25 Fine, 6 Days in Jail

Terarkana — In municipal court Monday Wilbert Hamilton, Fulton negro, pleaded guilty of vandalism and was fined $25 and six days in jail.

Hamilton said he threw rocks at cars passing on Highway 7, for no apparent cause. Officers said Hamilton damaged three or four cars before he was arrested by Sgt. Milton Mosier of the state police. He had been in jail six days since his arrest.

Judge Will Steel termed the incident "pure viciousness" and warned Hamilton he could have caused a serious accident or death as a result.

In other action Logan Williams, 19, of Fulton, was fined $25 and costs after State Trooper Charles Boyd testified that Williams "raced headon toward an oncoming car" and then swerved over to his side.

Boyd said Williams drove at speeds up to 60 miles an hour and was dangerous in his manner of driving.

Improvements Soon Pay for Themselves

"Farm improvements soon pay for themselves," said W. M. Sparks, county supervisor, Farmers Home Administration, Hope.

This statement is based on records of families in Hempstead county who have received Farm Development loans. The repayment record and increased income per family has been very satisfactory. The supervisor further stated that farm development loans are more than dollar-and-dime transactions. They are actual investments in better rural living for the different families and in the building of better communities.

The farmer gets greater production as called for at this time, and by increasing the value of his land, he creates greater security for his family in the years ahead. It is a recognized fact that a community based on the living agriculture is a community where business conditions are generally good, people are progressive, and schools and churches are well supported.

A large percentage of farmers in this county own their farms but not all of them had an opportunity to utilize the land to its best advantage. Mr. Sparks said, from seeing most of the farms in the county, that a real need exists for farm development work. To speed up the main facts about farm development loans, he said: Further that owners of family-type farms are eligible for assistance through the Farmers Home Administration for loans to develop their farms into efficient farm management units. Funds may be included for pasture improvement and land development, including soil treatment, construction of terraces, drainage ditches, and for repair or construction of farm buildings. Loans are repayable over a period of not more than 40 years, and the interest rate is 4 per cent. Farmers are encouraged to refinance their indebtedness as rapidly as possible. Applications for this type service may be filed at the Farmers Home Administration office in Hope.

Arrangements for OPR men to be in Hope on a regular schedule were worked out by the Hope Chamber of Commerce, with James J. Holway, district OPR director.

Holway expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce.

Without the cooperation of the Hope Chamber of Commerce, and the other chambers of commerce in the state, he said, it would be exceedingly difficult for OPR to reach retailers throughout Arkansas with a regularly scheduled program specifically designed to assist them in complying with OPR regulations.

OPR representatives Ray St. Baugh and Harry Worley will be at the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, June 21, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. They will provide assistance on all OPR regulations.

Fierce Fighting Breaks Out on Korean Front

Transport Strike in Detroit Ends

Detroit, June 19 — Cars and city buses rolled to the streets again today after a strike that lasted for two months.

An end came last night to the nation's longest major transit strike in history. Without their demand for a 10 per cent wage increase, the AFL union car and bus drivers agreed to work the morning walkout of the city.

Modest gains in wages and benefits were the result of a fight that began in April. A fight still appears to be over Michigan's anti-race law, affecting public employment for element in the transit unit.

"Detroiters busy Detroiters to families. Actually, the strike has never been a real one. It was a production strike. At no time has there been any impairment to the city's transportation system."

Striking workers and their leaders said they were not satisfied with the settlement. They said they would continue to fight for a 10 per cent wage increase.

Prisoners Granted

Prisoners of war in Germany are being granted more freedom of movement, according to a report from the American Red Cross. The report states that the prisoners are being allowed to visit their families and to travel within their own country. This is a significant improvement in their conditions, and it is hoped that it will lead to further improvements in the treatment of prisoners of war.

The report also mentions that the prisoners are being allowed to work on their own farms and to engage in other productive activities. This is another step towards normalcy for the prisoners, and it is a sign that the world is moving towards a more peaceful future.

Senators to Explore Ethics in Government

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 19 — (AP) — A hardy little band of senators, armed with good intentions, set out today to explore a strange and shadowy land called "ethics in government."

It's a land where, behind the scenes, there are battles fought like cocktail parties; some of the natives shouldn't but do, accept favors for favors granted; threats are made; and the law can be bent without blinking.

The senators are looking for special kind of medicine — ethical standards, they call it — which can be used to strengthen the moral backbone of those who work for the government or do business with it.

This unusual journey began in the head of Senator Fulbright, Arkansas Democrat, some months ago when he was digging into the doings of the RFC, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

On March 27 he got up on the senate floor, making a speech and a suggestion: "In making this suggestion I am quite prepared to be rebuffed. It will not be the first time. To expect or even hope for an improvement in the moral climate of Washington is, in the eyes of the boys who know, I am sure, thoroughly utopian."

He suggested congress create a commission of prominent citizens to study and make recommendations — a code of ethics, for improvement in the moral standards of members of congress, those who work in government departments, and people doing business with congress or the departments.

Congress, which has never shown enthusiasm for outside suggestions on how to improve itself, received with something less than cheers the Fulbright suggestion that a commission of outsiders could prescribe a moral code for congress.

But the idea landed in the lap of the senate's labor committee, which then told a subcommittee — headed by Senator Douglas, Illinois Democrat — to look into the suggestion. Today Douglas' little group started to work.

For about 15 days it will listen to the views of 20 or 25 prominent men on whether they think there's a truly a need for such a commission and code of conduct. Then it will be up to the subcommittee to decide whether it thinks the idea is good.

But even if the commission approves, the full labor committee and then both houses of congress approve. So creation of the commission, if it ever is created, is still quite a distance away. In the end congress may say "uh, huh," and forget the whole thing.

Douglas, though, is in full sympathy with Fulbright's thinking on this. In the end, any code of ethics or moral conduct, recommended by the commission and adopted by congress, would hardly be law in the sense that it carried criminal penalties for violation. Without penalties, what effect could it have?

Douglas thinks the effect would be good: It would set up standards by which legislators, government officials, and those dealing with the government would know what was expected of them. And they would be judged by which the public could judge all three groups.

There is a code of ethics surrounding court judges. The parties in a case are supposed never to discuss it with the judge of side of court and he's expected to decide a case of the evidence, not on friendship or favors. He's not supposed to accept favors from people involved in a case before him.

There's no such code in government dealings. Yet officials in government agencies sit as judges, making decisions involving millions of people and much money. For example: Government loans, housing, radio, television, railroads, electric power.

It may not be a law when a government official is given a big job or a free trip, or a free week at a hotel, or a gift shortly after making a decision favoring some firm or helping it get something it wanted. But is that kind of conduct moral? Is it morally right for an official, who has to make a decision involving some firm, to listen to a lobbyist from that firm in some outside place, like a cocktail party? And what of businessmen who try to influence government officials or congressmen by pressure or favors?

And is it morally right for a congressman to threaten a government employee if he doesn't come through with a favor for the congressman or one of his friends? And a member of congress may be violating no law if he gets jobs for friends, or relatives in some firm he's helped, but is that ethical?

RED PAPER RETURNED

Havana, Cuba, June 18 (AP) — The Communist newspaper Hoy, closed and seized by the government last August, has been returned to its owners.

Anibal Escalante, Communist representative in congress and editor of the paper, said last night it would resume publication as soon as possible, but he added that it will cost the party about $50,000 in repairs. He said some of the paper's machines were ruined and others apparently had been damaged by clubs.

IT'S HITCHED TO THE STARS — Like a weird machine from another planet is the latest camera built to catch "shooting stars" for Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. The 5000-pound camera will be installed near Las Cruces, N. M., and is expected to photograph 40 times more meteors than any camera now in use. Here, Graham Wallace of Norwalk, Conn. operates the controls that aim the huge lens.

Evening Shade

The Evening Shade Home Demonstration Club met on June 7th at the home of Mrs. Herbert Elam. The president, Mrs. Frank Smith, opened the meeting with the hostess reading the devotional, Matthew 5:1-12. Each member answered roll call with "My Favorite Garden Flower."

Mrs. Herbert Elam read the minutes and the members discussed plans for the council meeting on July 29 and also the forthcoming club picnic at the picnic grounds on the property of Mrs. Hackler. A demonstration on making corsages was given by Mrs. Dale Hunt. Mrs. Frank Smith gave the arrangement of flowers.

Those present were: Mrs. Dale Hunt, Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Herbert Elam, Mrs. Jerold White, Mrs. Ervin Anderson, Mrs. Weatherford, Mrs. Paris Anderson, Mrs. John Hackler, Mrs. Betty Bell, Mrs. Joe Martin, Mrs. Frank Smith and daughter, Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Morris Poindester, and also ten children.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe Martin, and all members are urged to attend.

Probers Await Reply From Gov. Warren

Baltimore, June 19 (AP) — Senate crime probes today were sternly awaiting a reply from Florida's Governor Fuller Warren — they want to know if he's going to come to their sessions in Miami next week.

Late last night, Senator Herbert R. O'Connor, chief of the senate sleuths, sent a telegram to the Florida governor informing him that his presence at the hearings Thursday and Friday is "most necessary."

An official source close to the committee, who wouldn't allow himself to be quoted, said the telegram was "an unprecedented action."

He said the message was in effect "a demand."

Governor Warren was believed to be "somewhere in Ty Ormond beach area," and was not immediately available for comment.

In its first report to the senate, the crime committee criticized his contributions to Governor Warren's election campaign by William H. Johnston, of Jacksonville, Fla., owner of dograce track.

In the past governors of states invaded by crime probes have been "invited" to attend if they care to do so.

The crime committee had sent what one source described as a "pointed invitation to Governor Warren last week."

Senator O'Connor said the governor replied through a press secretary that he was "practically exhausted" from work caused by recent legislative sessions, but could meet with them at a later and unspecified date.

The Maryland Democrat said last night's wire informs Gov. Warren that there cannot be "satisfactory and complete hearings without your presence x x x in view of your knowledge and responsibility."

O'Connor said the telegram also offers to extend the hearings through Saturday if that will help the Florida governor any.

Hot Weather Is Forecast

Chicago, June 19 (AP) — A warm June day appeared in prospect for most of the nation today with the far southwest in line for more hot weather.

Temperatures again yesterday generally were above 100 degrees from the Rio Grande valley to the interior valleys of California. Top marks were 112 at Presidio, Tex., 107 at Wink, Tex., 105 at Yuma, Ariz., and 101 at Blythe, Calif.

The shower area extended over the middle Mississippi valley, Michigan, Northern Texas and Oklahoma and the northern great plain states. It was warm and humid over the southern states and northward into the Ohio valley and readings generally were around normal in most of the western states.

Moral Lapse in U.S. Affirmed

Washington, June 19 (AP) — Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren today told senators there has been "an undoubted weakening of moral standards" in government and out of it. As far as the government is concerned, he said congress itself must shoulder part of the blame.

Warren, uncle Sam's boss as comptant, is an agent of congress rather than of the President.

The comptroller general gave his views as a leadoff witness in hearings on government moral standards before a senate labor subcommittee. He endorsed a proposal to set up a commission of distinguished citizens to draft methods of shoring up the moral level of the government, including the ethics of congress.

LATIN TROOPS ARRIVE

Tokyo, June 19 (AP) — The first troops from South America to reach Korea — a battalion from Colombia — arrived Saturday, the army announced today.

Shippers Brace for Lengthy Strike

New York, June 19 — (AP) — American shippers and CIO Seamen braced themselves today for a prolonged maritime tieup that has left scores of vessels idle in Atlantic and Gulf coast ports.

But on the West coast there was hope for a settlement today between shipowners and striking seamen.

Federal Mediator Omar Hawkins said in San Francisco last night that he was "optimistic" after union and company officials recessed overnight. An official of the CIO American Radio Association (ARA) said an agreement might come today.

In New York, federal mediators were unsuccessful in new attempts to bring shippers together with delegates from three CIO unions.

The government conciliators planned to meet again this morning with company representatives, and possibly in the afternoon with union officials.

United Air Lines Pilots on Strike

Chicago, June 19 — The hundred AFL pilots of the United Air Lines went on strike, paralyzing the nation at 4:56 (EST) today.

A spokesman for the AFL Air Line Pilots association said that the strike will not affect the UAL pilots flying on the Korean Pacific airfield, operating.

You Would Think Nobody Wants the Job

By JACK BELL

Washington, June 18 (AP).—Look at the record and you'd think nobody — well, almost nobody — wants to be president for the four years beginning in January, 1933. Although the Democratic and Republican nominating conventions are only a little more than a year away, coyness among prospective candidates has reached something of record breaking proportions.

One man, President Truman, says he knows what he's going to do. But he hasn't said what that is. Outside of Mrs. Truman — and maybe Margaret — nobody seems to know whether the President is going to run again or not.

If you ask William M. Boyle Jr., the democratic national chairman, he puts on his most inscrutable smile. Boyle has been practicing it for years and it never worked better.

Boyle doesn't have to worry. His plan of campaign is the same whether Mr. Truman chooses or does not choose to run. He is simply going out to gather up for Mr. Truman all of the convention delegates he can corral.

If the President runs, fine and dandy. If he does not, Mr. Truman asks the delegates to support the man of his choice. Simple as that.

Even Jonathan Daniels, Raleigh, N. C., editor and Truman biographer, said after a White House visit yesterday he thinks, but doesn't know — that Mr. Truman is going to run again. He didn't get that from the President, Daniels hastened to say, but added:

"The more his foreign policy — which he considers vital to resist Russian aggression and preserve democracy — is attacked, the more he will fight back."

This kind of report makes it difficult for other Democrats to do much about running for President. They can't even run for vice president as long as Alben Barkley gives no indication of stepping out.

Small wonder, then, that such Democrats as Senators Kefauver of Tennessee, Douglas of Illinois, Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Roy Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., Justice William O. Douglas, Chief Justice Fred Vinson, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, and others are as coy as school girls.

Look magazine says in its current issue it polled 41 Democratic senators and found only five who named Mr. Truman as their first choice to make next year's race. It said 15 favored Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The Republicans have no such barrier as the Democrats but the nearest they have to an avowed candidate is Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Taft says he expects to decide some time before Sept. 1 whether to run.

Miss Wanda Smith of Hot Springs have returned from a vacation trip to Old Mexico, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Galveston, Texas.

Mrs. Chad L. Archer left Monday for her home in Corinth, Mississippi, after spending the weekend with her father Mr. Starling Moses. Miss Anna Rice of Jonesboro will spend several weeks in Hope visiting her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thornton.

Mrs. Henry Bell and daughter Miss Jean Rooker of McGhee are spending this week with Mrs. Bell's mother, Mrs. B. D. Ellis.

Mrs. Thomas Carter and son, who have been guests of Mrs. Carter's mother Mrs. Elizabeth Pritchard and other relatives, left today for their home in Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Redding visited Capt. and Mrs. Dorsey Fuller Thursday, enroute to Ft. Hood after spending a 15 day leave in Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. I. F. Russell had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hefner and daughter Byron Denon of Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGregor and daughters Jane and Ann of Tucson Arizona are visiting relatives and friends.

DOROTHY DIX

Sponging Neighbor

Dear Dorothy Dix: What is the remedy for a sponging neighbor? We have one who virtually lives on the community. She is always borrowing bread and butter and canned goods and she wanders through our houses taking the new magazines and books we have not had time to read ourselves. She never returns anything. She sends her children over to us to care for when she wants to go downtown to the movies and they forage our kitchens because they are always half-starved. Worst of all, she is that pest—a morning visitor—who drops in when you are bathing the baby or planning the meals or sweeping the floor for endless gossip about nothing. When she gives a party it is literally on the neighborhood because we are all called upon for contributions. This woman's house is unkempt. She never washes a dish until her whole supply is exhausted and her floors need a steam shovel to excavate them instead of a broom, yet she is strong and healthy and a college graduate. What can we do?

Answer: Plenty. You can refuse to let yourselves be held up. Nobody needs to be imposed upon. You can defend yourselves if you will.

Instead of grouching over this woman's grafting and recounting how much she has done you out of every time you meet, why don't you women stiffen up your back bones enough to put a stop to it by declining to accede to her demands? Of course, any housekeeper can occasionally find out at the critical moment when she is making a cake that she has run out of sugar, or that she has short on bread when unexpected company drops in, and the mix is pover. But habitual borrowing is nothing but petty larceny and the sooner you put an end to it the better. There is neither charity nor generosity in your feeding a family that is amply able to pay its own grocery bill.

There is nothing that shows what poor, weak, craven cowards we are so plainly as the way we let people exploit us, even when we know that they are doing it. All of us have neighbors or friends like yours and even members of our families who work us to a finish, and we meekly submit to their exactions because we haven't the nerve to raise our own hands in our own defense.

Yet we could defend ourselves by the simple process of refusing to stand up and deliver when set upon by these grafters. We could say "no" to the moochers. We could send the visiting children back home, and we could shut our doors in the faces of the deadbeats. So we don't deserve any sympathy for our sufferings. We encourage the whole tribe of spongers by being so easy to squeeze.

Dear Miss Dix: We are two girls 18 years of age. What can kids nowadays do about old fashioned parents? Every time we come in after 12 at night, and every time we smoke or drink we get a good lecture. Would you give us some advice on what to do about our parents.

Answer: It would give me great pleasure to give your parents some apparently much needed advice about you! A really good old-fashioned spanking to begin with, our few at 8 o'clock every night, including Saturdays and Sundays, and confiscation of all cigarettes together with considerable curtailment of pocket money. Your parents aren't old fashioned; they're too darn modern for your good and theirs. Drastic measures better be taken with you two unless both families are looking for trouble.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a 17-year-old girl. I have a boy friend 22 who has been in service five months. During that time I haven't had a date. My school friends say I should have more than one boy friend, and they say he is too old for me. What is your advice?

Answer: You are too young to be bound to one boy friend. You should go out on dates, and to dances but make sure of one thing. Let your serviceman know you are going out, especially if you made any promise to him about no accepting other dates. The age difference isn't too serious, although you probably would be happier

Atom Plant Workmen on Wildcat Strike

Oak Ridge, Tenn., June 18 (AP).—About two-thirds of the 1200 AEC construction workers on two atomic projects have gone on a wildcat strike because the wage stabilization board has not approved over calling wage boosts. And at nearby Knoxville, 400 other construction men—also AFL—were reported idle for the same reason. The walkout halted construction on two multi-million dollar housing projects.

J. C. Kerr, business agent of Knoxville Building Trade union, said the strikes which started yesterday were not authorized and that union officials were trying to get the men to return to their jobs.

The workers are protesting the delay in receiving pay hikes which were provided for in most AFL agreements negotiated in this area last September before any wage ceiling formula was set up.

They were to have started getting the boosts May 1. The hikes would affect a dozen different crafts with widely varying pay scales, and were to range from 10 to 12 cents an hour.
